

Activities

- Farmers Markets

- ❖ Bluffton -Open Thursday 1-6.

This weekly event is held on Calhoun Street in historic Old Town Bluffton. You'll find fresh, vegetables, fruits, local honey, kettle corn, crab soup, baked goods, and flowers at this open-air market that started back in 2006. Between the stands of fresh produce, you'll find local artists and craftsmen showcasing their work and products. Make a day exploring the Farmer's Market by visiting local stores and restaurants. We recommend eating outside at The Pearl Kitchen and Bar or The Cottage. Both places offer great food and are steps away from this open-air market.

- ❖ Hilton Head Market at Honey Horn- Open weekly hours vary.

Call 843-785-2767 for more information

Open weekly at 70 Honey Horn Plantation Rd, on the island. Good for a quick stop off to pick up fresh produce and some local treats.

- Shelter Cove Community includes Shelter Cove Harbour, Shelter Cove Plaza, and Shelter Cove Towne Centre. Known for its many shops, restaurants, businesses, and Hilton Head Island's favorite waterfront venue for shopping, dining, accommodations, water activities, events, and live entertainment. Located in the heart of Hilton Head Island The award winning regional Arts Center of Coastal Carolina is a remarkable showcase for professional performing and visual arts, as well as cultural festivals and educational outreach. This is proof that life on our legendary white sand shores is so much more than a day at the beach.

Beaufort

Founded in 1711, Beaufort is South Carolina's second oldest city. Our rich cultural heritage is part of our daily life, and we strive to protect and preserve our City's history in the 304-acre National Historic Landmark District. The City of Beaufort's history dates to the 1500s, when the Spanish founded Santa Elena in 1566 on Parris Island in Port Royal Sound. It's not surprising that Beaufort celebrates its history, and that our Historic District is one of our crown jewels.

Coastal Living magazine proclaimed Beaufort the nation's Happiest Seaside Town in 2013, citing "Lowcountry friendliness and urban refinement, antebellum architecture, exquisite local cuisine, and rich African-American heritage" as the basis for selection.
